Georgia, Clark County.

The above map is a representation of the town of Athens including the portion known as Oconee, and the lands belonging to the college. The streets of the town are numbered from 1 to 67. The second roadway by steps divides alternation from one to thirty-one unknown. And the third addition, brought by D. Robinson in 1833, is numbered from thirty-two to twenty-one east from one to thirty-five. In the land office, Vol. 5, 1820, an additional from thirty-five.

Athens 5th October, 1823.